

Gym Instructing Level 2

NFCE Diploma - 6 Month Programme

EDUCATION
WISE

OVERVIEW

The NFCE Level 2 Certificate in Gym Instructing is the industry-recognised starting point for those looking to begin a career in the fitness sector. This qualification provides the essential knowledge and practical skills needed to plan, deliver and supervise safe and effective exercise sessions in a gym or health club environment.

Delivered fully remotely by Educationwise, learners can study flexibly at their own pace with full tutor support, making it ideal for those beginning their journey into the fitness industry or balancing other personal and professional commitments.

Key Features

- Develops essential skills in planning and delivering safe gym-based exercise sessions
- Builds core knowledge of anatomy, physiology, and nutrition
- Strengthens client care, communication, and professional practice skills
- Develops the ability to deliver engaging gym inductions and supervise exercise safely
- Supports confidence in working with a wide range of clients in a fitness environment
- Delivered fully online with flexible access to learning materials and tutor support
- Progression into Level 3 Personal Training and advanced fitness qualifications

The following six units must be completed for the full qualification

Module	Topic
1	Anatomy and Physiology for Exercise
2	Maximising the Customer Experience in a Gym Environment
3	Supporting Client Health and Well-Being
4	Conducting Client Consultations and Gym Inductions
5	Planning and Reviewing Gym-Based Exercise Programmes
6	Instructing and Supervising Gym-Based Exercise Programmes

TO FIND OUT MORE INFO AND
TO GET IN TOUCH, SCAN HERE

www.educationwisegroup.co.uk

Gym Instructing Level 2

NFCE Diploma - 6 Month Programme

EDUCATION
WISE

ABOUT THE COURSE

What you will learn

- Core anatomy and physiology required to support safe gym-based exercise instruction
- How to plan and deliver basic, effective gym sessions for a range of clients
- Client care, communication, and supporting inductions in a gym environment
- Fundamental nutrition principles to support health and active lifestyles
- Health, safety, and safeguarding responsibilities within a fitness setting
- Professional conduct and understanding of the role of a gym instructor
- How to supervise exercise sessions and support correct technique
- Building confidence in working with clients in a gym or health club environment

Cost: £500 – A one-time payment covers the full cost of the course and all learning materials.

Progression

Completion of this qualification can lead to:

- Progression onto Level 3 Personal Training or other advanced fitness qualifications
- Entry-level roles within gyms, health clubs, and leisure centres as a gym instructor
- Opportunities to support group exercise, inductions, and client wellbeing programmes
- A strong foundation for specialist study in fitness, coaching, and exercise science

Why Choose This Course?

- Fully remote and flexible delivery for busy professionals
- Focused on practical skills for real-world exercise referral scenarios
- Supported by experienced tutors with industry knowledge
- Can be funded via Advance Learner Loan for accessible upskilling
- Recognised qualification that opens progression into advanced exercise and health roles

The NCFE Level 2 Certificate in Gym Instructing is the ideal entry point for anyone serious about starting a career in the fitness industry. It provides a strong foundation of practical skills and essential knowledge that employers look for when hiring gym staff.

This qualification is designed to build confidence from day one, helping learners understand how to work safely, communicate effectively with clients, and deliver high-quality gym-based exercise sessions. It focuses on real-world application, ensuring you are prepared for the day-to-day responsibilities of a gym instructor.

Delivered fully online with expert tutor support, it offers the flexibility to study around existing commitments while still gaining a nationally recognised qualification. Whether you are taking your first step into fitness or planning to progress into personal training, this course gives you the platform to move forward with confidence.

TO FIND OUT MORE INFO AND
TO GET IN TOUCH, SCAN HERE

www.educationwisegroup.co.uk